Description

Introducing the Tekkou Lever Handle, a sleek and stylish piece of architectural ironmongery that adds a touch of sophistication to any door. The name "Tekkou" is derived from the Japanese word for "iron gloves," a nod to the strength and durability of this handle which provides easy and comfortable access while maintaining a contemporary aesthetic.

Crafted from high-quality aluminium, this Lever Handle boasts a hairline finish that is both durable and visually stunning. The anodised Slate Grey + Black colour combination adds a touch of elegance to any space, while its ergonomic design ensures a comfortable grip every time.

Measuring in at 135×50×67mm, the Tekkou Lever Handle is the perfect size for any standard door. Its sleek and modern design will complement any interior style, from minimalist to industrial chic.

Whether you're looking to upgrade your home or office, the Tekkou Lever Handle is the perfect choice. With its stylish design and durable construction, this architectural ironmongery piece is sure to provide years of reliable use and add a touch of sophistication to any space.
